Exclusions

The Insurer will not be liable to indemnify the Insured for:

1. Loss arising wholly or partly because of the wilful act other than or neglect of the Insured after the Inception Date;
2. Loss arising from a deliberate or reckless failure to disclose to the Insurer every material circumstance which the Insured knows or ought to know or misrepresentation of any material fact. Where the failure to disclose or misrepresentation is not deliberate or reckless, depending on the circumstances, the insurer may still be entitled to refuse a claim or reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim;
3. Loss arising from any matter stated as an Additional Exclusion in an Insured Risk Appendix.

Claims Conditions

When You make a claim under this Policy You must adhere to the claims conditions listed below. If You do not adhere to these claims conditions the Insurer may reject Your claim or reduce the amount of Loss that it pays to the extent that the breach of these conditions is responsible for increasing the amount of Loss.

1. It is a condition precedent of the Insurer's liability under this Policy that the Insured will give written notice to the Administrator at the address shown under "Making a Claim", below, as soon as reasonably practicable, of any circumstances likely to give rise to a claim for which the Insurer may be liable under this Policy and provide the Administrator with such information and documentation as may reasonably be requested.
2. The Insurer will be entitled to participate fully in any defence, negotiation or settlement of an Adverse Interest and in any such event the Insured will (to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, but without limitation):
 - (i). not incur any cost or expense without first consulting with and receiving written consent from the Insurer;
 - (ii). not make any admission of liability, offer, settlement, promise, payment or discharge without first consulting with and receiving written consent from the Insurer;
 - (iii). give the Insurer access to and provide the Insurer with copies of all correspondence and documentation available to the Insured in relation to the Adverse Interest and afford the Insurer sufficient time in which to review and comment on such documentation;
 - (iv). inform the Insurer of any proposed meeting with any third party in relation to an Adverse Interest and allow the Insurer to attend such meeting and, if the Insurer so requests, provide a detailed written account of the subject and outcome of any such meeting or discussion at which the Insurer was not present;
 - (v). conduct all negotiations and proceedings in respect of any Adverse Interest with advisers of which the Insurer has approved in writing and take such action as the Insurer may reasonably require to contest, avoid, resist, compromise or otherwise defend an Adverse Interest;
 - (vi). provide the Insurer with such other information (including but not limited to a statutory declaration in the terms set out in the Statements of Fact) and assistance in connection with any Adverse Interest as the Insurer may reasonably request.
3. The Insurer will be entitled to all rights and defences it may have in respect of a claim by an Insured against any successor to that Insured.
4. If at the time of any claim made under this Policy there is any other insurance in place whether effected by the Insured or by any other person under which the Insured may be entitled to make a claim wholly or partly in respect of the Insured Risk the Insurer will be liable to pay or contribute in respect of a claim under this Policy only rateably with such other insurance.
5. If the Insured makes any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent as regards amount or otherwise, this Policy will become voidable and all claims under it may be forfeited.

General Conditions

The following general conditions apply to this Policy. If You do not adhere to these general conditions the Insurer may reject Your claim or reduce the amount of Loss that it pays to the extent that Your breach of these conditions is responsible for increasing the amount of Loss.

1. It is a condition precedent to the Insurer's liability under this insurance contract that the Statements of Fact made to the Insurer by the Insured are true and accurate at the time of Inception of the contract.
2. The Insurer and Insured agree that each will, where required to take any action or provide its consent or compliance, do so reasonably and without undue delay.
3. The Insured will not, without the written consent of the Insurer:
 - (i). disclose the existence of this Policy, other than to prospective purchasers, their mortgagees, and their respective legal representatives;
 - (ii). communicate on any matter regarding an Insured Risk with any party who, it is reasonable to believe, may be entitled to assert an Adverse Interest;
 - (iii). make an application to any court or the Upper Tribunal (Land Chamber) or the Land Registry in respect of an Insured Risk.
4. This Policy will be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales and is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
5. The total liability of the Insurer in respect of all claims made under this Policy will not exceed, in the aggregate, the Limit of Indemnity.
6. This Policy will not be in force unless it has been signed by a person who has been authorised to do so by the Insurer.
7. The Insured will take reasonable steps to mitigate Loss provided that the cost of such steps taken at the request of or with the written consent of the Insurer after notification of a claim or circumstance likely to give rise to a claim to the Insurer will be borne by the Insurer.
8. The Insurer may, at its discretion and at its own cost, with the prior consent of the Insured, take any action which it considers necessary to prevent or minimise Loss whether or not it is liable under this Policy (including but not limited to pursuing or defending any action at law or otherwise or making an application to a court, the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber) or other body of competent jurisdiction in the name of and on behalf of the Insured in relation to an Insured Risk) and by doing so the Insurer will not be taken to have conceded any liability or waived any provision of this Policy.
9. If the Insurer agrees or is obliged to make any payment to or on behalf of an Insured because of an Insured Risk, the Insurer will immediately be subrogated to any rights which that Insured may have in relation to that Insured Risk.
10. If any dispute arises as to Market Value or an amount to be paid under this Policy (the Insurer having otherwise accepted liability) such dispute will be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the Insurer and Insured or, failing agreement, by the President at that time of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. Where referral to arbitration is made under this Condition, the making of an award will be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Insurer. The costs of any arbitration will be shared equally by the Insurer and Insured.
11. For the purposes of this Policy, the Administrator is authorised to provide any consent required under the terms of this Policy on behalf of the Insurer.
12. Any Additional Condition in an Insured Risk Appendix.

Cancellation Rights

This Policy may be cancelled by contacting the Cancellations Department at cancellations@clsrs.co.uk within 14 days of the Inception Date. Provided no claim has been made or is pending any premium paid will be refunded in full. No refund of premium will be available if the policy is cancelled after 14 days from the Inception Date.

If the premium is not paid to Us within 14 days, We have the right to cancel the policy from the Inception Date. Notice will be sent to the Insured in the post.
